

2011 Historical Metallurgy Society Research in Progress Programme, University of Sheffield

09.00 – 09.30 Registration

09.30 – 09:45 Opening remarks from organisers

Session 1 chairperson: Roger Doonan

09:45 – 10:05 A. Badcock, From blast furnace to Concorde - the rise and fall of the Monk Bridge Iron Works

10:05 – 10:25 M. Phelps, Analysis of the Metalworking remains from Downside Mill

10:25 – 10:45 G. Williams & B. Gilmour, Excavation of a 12th - 14th c. smithy in south Oxfordshire and its place in Early Medieval industrial development

10:45 – 11.15 Coffee/tea break

Session 2 chairperson: Jessie Slater and/or Derek Pitman

11.15 – 11.35 H. Mytum, Small scale metalworking on Iron Age settlements

11.35 – 11.55 D. McLaren, Metalworking at Culduthel, Inverness: an introduction

11.55 – 12.15 R. Fillery-Travis, Compositional variance in Roman iron production slags from a single site

12:15 – 12:35 C. Wang, Z.Jin & J.Y. Hwang, Establishing Pb and Cu isotope signatures of some native copper sources in North America: Implications for archaeological provenance studies

12.35 – 13.35 Lunch

Session 3 chairperson: TBA

13.35 – 13.55 J. Unwin, What did you do in the War, Sir?

13.55 – 14.15 T. Goskar, Reconstructing the historic global copper industry

14.15 – 14.35 P. Claugton & L. Anguilano, Silver in Queensland: a preliminary study of ore processing techniques

14.35 – 15.05 Coffee/tea break

Session 4 chairperson: TBA

15.05 – 15.25 S. James, Examining ancient mines through a different medium: the faunal remains from the Great Orme Mines, North Wales

15.25 – 15.45 A. Cassels, Production techniques and consumer habits within late medieval dress accessories

15.45 – 16.05 C. Clarke-Nilsen, Minoan Metal Vessel Manufacturing: Techniques and Technology

16.05 – 16.30 Concluding remarks

16.30 Reception